

BLACK
ART
SPEAKS
CINCINNATI ARTIST COLLECTIVE

Celebrating our Freedom through Art - Juneteenth

Join Black Art Speaks BLM Mural Artist for Painting and programming beginning June 12 – June 19, 2021. Get some lessons in Beat making and freestyling, listen as a diverse group reads powerful poetry, help paint a numbers design created for the community and more. Free food, music and great discussions that will feed your soul. Black Art Speaks is a membership based non-profit organization established to empower Black performing and visual artists to create the desires of their heart. Birthed from Cincinnati's Black Lives Matter! Mural, Black Art Speaks aims to elevate black voices, help find the right support you need to fuel and showcase your work and to use our collective voice to speak against the wrongs and support the rights. Join us by visiting www.blackartspeaks.com.

Events Planned

Saturday, June 12, 2021

10 – 8p Paint & Programming

Live Beat Making, Freestyling Spoken Word & More

Sunday, June 13, 2021

12n – 5pm Paint & Programming

Graffiti Art, Poetry Community Paint by Numbers, & more

At 2:30pm join Juneteenth Cincinnati as they present "Wade in the Water" at Smale Park

Monday, June 14, 2021

Noon - 8pm Paint & Programming

Listen in on a Black Women's Hair Panel Discussion

Tuesday, June 15, 2021

3pm–10pm Paint & Programming

DJ & Guitar Performance, Steve Saunders to perform his new hit...Its' Time for A Change.

Wed & Thu, June 16 & 17, 2021

Closed to the Public

Friday, June 18, 2021

10am Flag Raising

3pm Unveiling of the Mural

4pm Paloozanoi Presents

Juneteenth Block Party on Freedom Way

Saturday, June 19, 2021

11am Black Owned Day Block Party

6pm – 11pm 2nd Annual Black Art Speaks Party at the BLM Mural

FOR MORE INFORMATION GO TO WWW.BLACKARTSPEAKS.COM

Follow us on Instagram
Black.art.speaks

Facebook Black Art Speaks